Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to remind you about the next NEU teacher strike that is planned for Thursday 2nd March 2023. On the last strike day, Dashwood was open to all pupils however, please do not assume this will be the case on this occasion. Please ensure that you do think about alternative childcare just in case we do have to close some classes. I will endeavour to let you know as soon as possible but, as you will be aware, staff do not have to inform schools of their intention to take strike action.

Yours sincerely

S. Gordon-Weeks
