

If you are interested in literacy, you could...

- Write your own warning story or write the story of Little Red Riding Hood.
- Write a poem about a wolf.
- Create a wanted poster for a woodcutter to come and save the day or one to try and capture the wolf.
- Write a holiday diary about what you got up to over Easter.

If you are feeling scientific you could you could...

- Research the six animal groups and what animals you may find in those groups.
- Learn about food chains and create your own food chain.

If you are feeling creative you could...

- Design and make a house, thinking about what materials would be best.
- Make a habitat for a range of animals, such as a woodland.
- Make a poster all about Spring.
- Make a poster all about woods and woodland.

Project based learning – Spirit of Adventure

Watch out Little Red Riding Hood!

(Term 5 Year 1 Topic)

Choose one of these options (or an idea you have yourself) and complete this alongside practising your reading and handwriting.

This project is due in on Friday 5th May

If you are feeling religious, you could you could...

- Tell the story of Easter through words and pictures.
- Tell the story of Eid and Ramadan through words and pictures.

If you are interested in maths, you could...

- Count in 2s, 5s and 10s and look at the patterns of the numbers.
- Practice adding numbers within 20 using your number bonds
- Ask an adult to help you cut food into halves and quarters and see how many parts there are