If you are feeling musical you could you could…

Learn a song from an artist who comes from North or South America

Make up a rap

If you are feeling creative you could…

Make a 3D globe showing countries and continents

Create a map of N and S America

Make food from another country

Create a tourist leaflet for a

If you are interested in maths, you could…

Investigate distances to other countries in North or South America from the UK

Cost a holiday to a country of your choice in N or S America. Include travel, accommodation, and visits to local tourist attractions.

Find out how many dollars you will get for £100 etc. Cost up your holiday in dollars.

Find out about the different time zones in America – are they the same

Project based learning

The biomes of the Americas are diverse. In which ways does this impact its inhabitants?

Due in: Friday 18th September 2026

If you are interested in geography, you could…

Find some key facts about a country in North / South America eg: rivers, mountains, population, landmarks, land borders, oceans/ seas.

If you are interested in history, you could…

Find out about the history of a country in North / South America

Create a timeline of key historical events from your chosen country

If you are interested in Religious Education, you could…

Explore the main religions practised across North or South America.

If you are interested in Physical Education, you could…

Keep a health and fitness diary including photos, videos, food lists, recipes about your healthy

If you are feeling musical you could you could…

Explore Black American musicians and the different styles of music.

If you are feeling creative you could…

Create a piece of artwork that reflect black history or a significant person that you have studied.

If you are interested in maths, you could…

Create a time line of events from time in black history eg: Rosa Parks life.

If you are interested in geography, you could…

Find about some key figures in Black History- where did/do they come from? What is that village/town/ city like? What are the geographical

Project based learning

What lessons have society learned from significant individuals in black history? Reflect on lessons learned and the changing of history.

Due in: Friday 18th September 2026

If you are interested in citizenship, you could…

Come up with your own definition of racism

Find out about The Underground Railroad and what the people who were against the slave trade did

If you are interested in Religious Education, you could…

Explore the religion or culture of a significant person in black history.

If you are interested in history, you could…

Research the contribution of significant individuals. You could focus on Rosa Parks, Harriet Tubman or Martin Luther King amongst many people who have changed history in

If you are interested in literacy, you could…

Read a book by an author from a different culture to you

Challenge yourself to read as many books as you can where the main characters culture/race is different. How many different ones can you find?

Write a biography about a key figure in Black